I know that it's not cool, you get up everyday and go to school.
But this is the time of your life, you don't get to spend it twice.
I remember the first time I saw her there,
her cute brown eyes and here cute brown hair (Aww).
I remember the first time that we said "hi"
now I have to say goodbye.

I know that I go to far when I think that
I can be with here.
Hey man, I don't know, what am I thinking?
Everyday when I'm at school I don't listen to what my teacher says.
All I do is sleep and dream about her.

C'mon let's take a ride, do you think that you could drive?
I have a lot of things on my mind that I don't wanna leave behind.
I wonder where she is right now?
I wonder if she's thinking about me?
Probably not, but that's okay, I think about her everyday and,
everybody wants to fall in love.
And I've been falling since the day I met her.
When will I hit the ground?
Never feel a thing, only hear the sound.

I know that I go to far when I think that
I can be with here.
Hey man, I don't know, what am I thinking?
Everyday when I'm at school I don't listen to what my teacher says.
All I do is sleep and dream about, sleep and dream about her.

I know that it's not cool to go to school.
See a new face every now and then someday I'll think way back when...
High School - the days are long the teachers are cool

you never play by the rules.
High School - I wish I had a few more years to make some changes
that's what I say.
I didn't want to end this way, but that's the way it goes.
Just know that I'm okay, I think you know the storyline.
I'll be back to visit her, but now I'm off to college somewhere.
Just know that I'm okay there's still a few more days.

I know that I go to far when I think that
I can be with here.
Hey man, I don't know, what am I thinking?
Everyday when I'm at school I don't listen to what my teacher says.
All I do is sleep and dream about, sleep and dream about her
