Your exterior is hard and fast while your interior will never last

The poisonous venom that flows in your veins spikes the addiction that I know you crave

The noxious gases that you inhale destroy your brain cells and they make you pale

So take this advice and clean up your act start paying your dues

Learn to love and respect the thing you have

I'll admit that I'm afraid of dying but a life worth living is a life thats worth fighting for

So I'll take my chances and I'll let you know

That I'm not that easy I'm the one in control

Now how does that sit with you does it hit close to home

Does it make you shake and lose control

Now take your time getting over

The fact that your dead and you'll never be sober

So do another line pretend you can fly

Leave through the window I can't watch you die

So tell me again what goes through your head

Nothing at all is what she said

Now she's kind of clueless to the things that she's done

The places she's been

Her infamous run with the devil's men

Now I know that you haven't had the best life

But you also haven't had the worst life

And to sit here and watch you die slowly but surely

It tears me apart it tears us all apart

Now there's nothing you can do and I realize that

But there is something that you can do

May the wind be at your back and the sun upon your face

And may the winds of destiny carry you aloft

To dance with the stars
