I believed, was deceived
Feeling like I want to leave
Hope is gone, led me on
This has all gone on too long
But things are never gonna change
No matter how much I complain

Don't exploit me, don't annoy me
I've applied, you wont employ me
Killing your time wasted my time
I feel like shit, I'm sure you feel fine

Pretty eyes filled with lies
You can't hide with that disguise
Hypocrite, just won't quit
I'm sick of it yeah just a bit
And I say here we go again
Will this depression ever end?

Don't exploit, me don't annoy me
I've applied you wont employ me
Killing your time wasted my time
I feel like shit, I'm sure you feel fine

I'm a quitter, three strike hitter
Won't let go, I'll hold on bitter
It's all over when it's over
Lost my only four leafed clover
I failed to mention you're starved for attention
Using me to ease your tension
'Cause you knew I would, and I'd say that it's all good
Won't do anything about it but I should
