I remember every word you said to me
I remember every breath you stole
And that wont get you very far now
I will know it and soon you will know it too

Lets play our cards and hope for the best, the best
Distractions and setbacks predicting the outcome
I will know it and soon you will know it too

Lets run away as fast as we can
To a place where no one has ever been
I'd be lying if I said I wasn't afraid
But as long as your here I'll be here to stay

Are there words that are sweet enough to say?
Everything that I wanted to explain
The way you take my breath away

And I know we'll have nothing but the best intentions
I'm always caught between the miles
And my wild ambitions
My ambitions

Lets run away as fast as we can
To a place where no one has ever been
I'd be lying if I said I wasn't afraid
But as long as your here I'll be here to stay

I'll hold my breath till I see you
So don't mind me if I look a little blue
I want to save every gasp of air
To make sure [x2]

Lets run away as fast as we can
To a place where no one has ever been
I'd be lying if I said I wasn't afraid
But as long as your here I'll be here to stay
Here to stay [x3]
