Waiting

So you say, never wanted to end this way.

You promise me the world and I believed you such a fool.

You fuelled the fire, it's not you who burned.

How long do you think I can wait, wait for you?

How long can I wait for you?

I was stupid and I planned.

Things like that you don't understand.

You mean more to me than I to you.

But I've been losing control, losing control.

Need some help some stability.

Did I not give you all have to give?

How long do you think I can wait, wait for you?

How long can I wait for you?

How long do you think I can wait, wait for you?

How long can I wait for you?

How long do you think I can wait, wait for you?

How long can I wait for you?
