You deserve only the best
A silver bullet shot straight through your chest
So you wont infest my dreams tonight
(You're my biggest mistake, my biggest regret) Now on the darkest night when the moon is full and
The stars are standing still I'll have to kill what I created
You are every childhood dream gone bad
I could have said 'fuck you' from the start though I bet you wish I had
You are a nightmare constantly haunting my mind
I'm so scared to fall asleep unaware of what I'll find Crawling out of your coffin with bloodlust in your brain
You're determined to tear my life apart
If I can't stop you I'll just drive this stake straight through your heart
To watch you wither away like a withering rose Turning from such a beautiful red into something that's better of dead
You're a monster, a terrible myth
It's nothing greek but it makes my voice go weak, silence and sweat,
My biggest regret, you are every childhood dream
gone bad,
You are hell, well I can tell, a recurring dream
Just like each halloween night I spent under the covers,
I'd trick or treat for something sweet, heres the trick,
You were too sweet, you are every childhood dream
gone bad
