You visit me in my dreams
There's no-one there to hear my screams
Slit my skin my flesh will tear
You rape me in my nightmare
Twisted echoes i'm torn apart
My body screams as the bleeding starts
Can't take much more of this
What happened to emotional bliss
In my dreams (i'm in ecstasy)
In my dreams (i'm in agony)
I'm confused and abused
There's no devotion with emotion
In my dreams
I'm tortured in my dreams
You'll never know what this means
Wallow in tears of blood
Your grin it widens as you fuck me up
In my dreams your coming
My bodies limp, my minds gone numb
Can't face the agony you put me through
If only i knew what i meant to you
