Your silence sings louder than your sword ever could.

The wolf stands atop the slaughtered lamb, without meaning to eat of its flesh!

Your silence sings louder than your sword.

Burn away that which was yesterday,
I never thought I'd see the like,
I am the wolf that calls upon his pack,
Vercingetorix is my name!

Burn away the day,
sounds we knew are gone
into the tales of old, bow down to my name!

Burn away that which was yesterday,
I never thought I'd see the like,
I am the wolf that calls upon his pack,
Vercingetorix is my name!
