There's no need to rehash the past
I can see the knife sticking in my back
I've come so far from there
2x

I would rather the rainy release
Of my sleepless solace
Than this sunny imprisonment
I call it Hell

Don't waste your energy
I'm already leaving
It's what we both want

I now know that I meant
Nothing
To you

There's no need to rehash the past
I can see the knife sticking in my back
I've come so far from there

2x

Chorus

Don't worry
I'm leaving
You couldn't pay me to stay
Another second
I'm already gone

Hate me

Hate me

I don't blame you

Chorus
