Well I saw your smile in the mirror, and maybe the
smile was a lie.
And I have no place I belong to, and I always stay for a while. For a while.

Goodbye, goodbye I start my own wasting time.
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye...

For all that we promised, all that we promised is done,
fade away and it's gone. And I scream, scream your name with broken hearts and picture frames.

Well I saw your smile in the mirror, and maybe the
smile was a lie.
And I have no place I belong to, and I always stay for a while.

I saw your smile in the mirror, I saw your smile in the mirror.
I saw your smile in the mirror, I saw your smile
goodbye.

For all that we promised, all that we promised is done,
fade away and it's gone. And I scream, scream your
name with broken hearts and picture frames.

All that we promised, all that we promised, so fade and
away, and it's done.
And I scream, scream your name, with broken hearts
and picture frames.
