I'm so sorry.

And I'm so sorry, I must confess and I'm worthless.
And I'm so sorry, I admire that you're still composed.
And I'm so sorry, I never made damn sure you're truly everything.
And I'm so sorry for all the lies that I've told you.

All the lies I've told you made me feel insecure,
The night I saw you crying, I'm so sorry.
All the lies I've told you made me feel insecure,
The night I saw you crying, I'm so sorry.
I'm so sorry.

Follow me to a place where the city sleeps nightly,
Take my hand and, follow me to a place where the city
sleeps nightly.
Take my hand.
Come take my hand, just take my hand, come take my...

You cried on your own, I died on my own, tonight we're alone, I won't let you go.

All the lies I told you, all the time I spend on you,
memories are chasing, memories are chasing.
All the lies I told you, all the time I spend on you,
memories are chasing, memories are chasing.

I'm so sorry.
I'm so sorry.
Follow me to a place where the city sleeps nightly.
Follow me to a place where the city sleeps nightly,
where the city sleeps nightly,
Follow me to a place where the city sleeps nightly,
where the city sleeps nightly.
Follow me to a place where the city sleeps nightly,
where the city sleeps nightly.
