This conversation's missing your voice,
You never want to see me and that's your choice; I know.

Life is just a dream and I'm dreaming of reality,
Baby if I wake up will you promise that you'll tell me?
Life is just a dream and I'm dreaming of reality,
Listen to your heartbeat; turn around and come back to
me

Wow, do you really wanna let this go?
Do you really wanna see me drown in this town?
Take a deep breath as we're going down.
Staring at him with your bedroom eyes,
Disguise the lies; say what's really on the inside
Can't break this spell your under.

6 o'clock on the dot and I'm ready for it,
Pick up the phone I think you really need to hear this.
If I speak to fast just let me know; I'll see you at the show.

Life is just a dream and I'm dreaming of reality
Baby if I wake up will you promise that you'll tell me?
Life is just a dream and I'm dreaming of reality
Listen to your heartbeat; turn around and come back to
me

Wow, do you really wanna let this go?
Do you really wanna see me drown in this town?
Take a deep breath as we're going down.
Staring at him with your bedroom eyes,
Disguise the lies; say what's really on the inside
Can't break this spell your under.
