Good to see you by the ashes (?) looking for a plane crash she thought the engine had survived and was she still wearing the rain coat coming up the road tonight stand the heat but I can't stand the light

kind of fool I've become and this is how the engine guides the way gonna find the ocean if it kills me just 74 more miles to go the moon ahead and the stars in tow I'll just smile as I go by and sons are out to pull you in let me help you, cause I can funny thing the engine says

me won for you (?)
my friend

I'm gonna climb the mountain if it kills me just 74 more miles to go
the moon ahead and the stars in tow

it's not as far as it may seem let the engine keep you clean
and don't worry
it's all been arranged

74 more miles to go
the moon ahead and the stars in tow

not as far as it may seem

and don't worry
it's all been arranged
