

Wonderheim

"Amanda"

Visit "Amanda" on MotoLyrics.com

There is not a symphony
Without a minor chord
There is not a masterpiece
Without some dark colors

There is not a single soul
Who has not gone through pain
A forest does not flourish
Without its rainy days

Gorgeous Amanda
Why are you crying
The devil is lying if he told you that
Dying is a better way

Amanda don't listen
I see your eyes glisten
But there will be brighter days

Don't give up on life
You're half way out of the dark
Find the strength to fight
For the sake of your gorgeous heart

You don't know the way
But you will someday
It may seem cliché
But you will be okay

Gorgeous Amanda
You're not alone
In fact there's a world
Full of people who are where you are

And we survive
Because we know
The other side is not that far

Don't give up on life
We're half way out of the dark
Find the strength to fight

For the sake of a gorgeous heart

We don't know the way
But we will someday
In which we'll all be saved
We're blind to our happy endings

Gather around
I've got something to say
You're life is a story
And it will not always be this way

It's got its ups and downs
It's got its softs and loads
Like a masterful composer's dream

Don't give up on life
We're half way out of the dark
Find the the strength to fight
For the sake of a gorgeous heart

Don't give up on life
We're half way out of the dark
Find the the strength to fight
For the sake of a gorgeous heart

Visit Wonderheim page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.