Bite my tongue, swallow my pride
Get to the middle, there's nothing inside
Nothing to hide, look at me now
Faking a smile like couldn't you tell
When everyone said I was better than this
You said to ignore them and never resist
To live in the moment and every component
Would fit on the tone and eventually click
I wanted to be what I couldn't
They told me I wouldn't, they told me I didn't belong
And I shut it, you told me to stick to my gun
So I push it, push it, watch it fall
Stop the game, I drop the game
Who's to blame, I can't recall

But if I did, I'd say to her
I'm sorry for the pain, the hurt
The strain, the grief, the fights, the lies
I make my peace and wipe my eyes
It's time to face the flames,
Brace myself and take the rain

But it's, it's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful
It's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful on fire
It's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful on fire

I can't tell if whatever we had was rellevant
Or just one helluva fad
But it felt like the first, I can't help but to tell it in verse
It was the best attempt I made to take that extra step
I hate the way we snuff the flame
I made mistakes, it's such a shame
I touched it, it busted, I guess I couldn't cut the mustard
Once the lust became too much
I couldn't muster up the guts
To adjust a such gift,
I couldn't trust your touch and kiss

I guess it wasn't meant to be
I must have just have set you free

I just want you to know that you helped me to grow
And showed me how content I could be
Now I'm ready to see what it's next
Thank you for everything, you were the best

Don't worry
It's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful on fire
It's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful on fire
It's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful on fire
It's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful on fire

I can tell if he's proud
Or just thinks that I live in the clouds
I couldn't emote, you know I'm a joke
It's time to throw in the towel
Just look at me now, look at you
I'm a shadow of everything that you have Everything that you grew, turn the left hand path
You stuck to the truth
Busted your ass
It must have been something I never had
And never will
And I've never admitted it but still
You didn't ignore me, I wasn't around
I'm sorry I buried my head in the ground
We've always known I wasn't the same
You've built a home, I've built a name
You've built it with stone
I've built it with pain
And filled it with shame
Still it remains, until the day I feel the flame

But it's, it's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful
It's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful on fire
It's beautiful, yeah it's beautiful on fire
So help me stop the fire, help me the fire

It's so beautiful here, so don't worry bout me
It's so beautiful, I really wish that you could have see
It's so beautiful here, so don't worry bout me
It's so beautiful, I really wish that you could have see
It's so beautiful here, so don't worry bout me
It's so beautiful, I really wish that you could have see.
