[B.o.B] If you asked me whats on my mind you probably won't believe it Cause if life was one big pool, I'd be in the deep end So I play my role and never ever speak it like a secret And all the while you just just to figure me out [Hook: B.o.B] But you can't see past my shades Past my shades Past my shades And you can't see past my shades Past my shades Past my shades And you can't see past my shades Past my shades Past my shades [B.o.B] Well ask me a question, I tell you no lies Cause there's nothing to hide, my soul's in my eyes And I'm ahead of my time but I cannot rewind The only thing I fear is the mirror in my bathroom People look and try to see a disguise But there is nothing that nobody can't see in light If it's a song with a rhyme or a verse with a line Then you understand in my mind [Hook: B.o.B.] [Lupe Fiasco] Uh, who else but Lu-elz? You know I got two belts, the black and the white one I begin and I master I see in my eye glasses But they saying what I'm seeing through is false like Ross I can hear him through the wall like +Walk This Way, + trying to dissuade my thoughts I'm a slave to myself and disobeyed my boss It's all in disarray this parade I walk They get amazed when they catch a chain I toss Amidst this array of different ways I talk And it hangs from your brain if my chain you caught Like I cough without covering my mouth I tip the scales like the King of the South Forgot that I was fat, I lost my way But now I'm back looking for the shade I sought And not Wonders, I'm Scott Summers So don't make me take off my stunners Bobby Ray, you know you got my numbers And them deer can't see us like hunters [Hook: B.o.B]
