You should be wilder
You're no fun at all
Yeah, thanks for the input
Thanks for the call
With dull knives and white hands
The blood of stone
Cold to the touch, right
Right down the bone

But you.. give me the electric twist
And it kicks, it kicks like a pony
And true, you might get away with it
It's a risk
It's a risk, yeah

Picked from a hot grove
Packaged for sale
It drips down the sleeve gets Under your nails
A loss of the senses
A chip off a tooth
The smells of the city
They ride in your suit
He says "don't think, don't talk"
Don't think
Don't think, Don't talk
Don't think
Don't think, Don't talk
But I don't think I want to

'Cuz you.. give me the electric twist
And it kicks
And it kicks, like a pony
And true.. you might run away with it

It's a risk,
It's a risk, yeah

Because it kicks, yeah
It really kicks, yeah

And the touch of you lips

It's a shock, not a kiss
It's electric twist, It's electric twist, yeah
And the touch of you lips
It's a shock, not a kiss
It's electric twist, It's electric twist, yeah
And the touch of you lips
It's a shock, not a kiss
It's electric twist, it's electric twist, yeah

He says "don't think, don't talk"
Don't think
Don't think, Don't talk
Don't think

'Cuz you give.. give me the electric twist
And it kicks
And it kicks, yeah
And true.. letcha get away with it
It's a risk,
It's a risk, yeah

You might get away with it
It's a risk, yeah
But it kicks, yeah
