Silver And Cold by A Fire Inside

I, I came here by day, but I left here in Darkness
And found you, found you on the way.
Now, it is silver and silent,
It is silver and cold.
You, in somber resplendence, I hold.
Your sins into me, oh, my beautiful one,

Your sins into me.
As a rapturous voice escapes,
I will tremble a prayer and I'll beg for forgiveness.
Your sins into, your sins into me, oh my beautiful one.
Light, like the flutter of wings,
Feel your hollow voice rushing into me
As you're longing to sing.
So I, I will paint you in silver,
I will wrap you in cold,
I will lift up your voice as I sink.
Your sins into me, oh, my beautiful one now,

Your sins into me.
As a rapturous voice escapes,
I will tremble a prayer and I'll beg for forgiveness.

Your sins into, your sins into me.
Cold in life's throws,
I'll fall asleep for you.
Cold in life's throws,
I only ask you turn away.
Cold in life's throws,
I'll fall asleep for you.
Cold in life's throws,
I only ask you turn as they seep into me, oh, my beautiful one now.
Your sins into me, oh, my beautiful one,
Your sins into me.
As a rapturous voice escapes,
I will tremble a prayer and I'll beg for forgiveness.
Your sins into, your sins into me. Oh!
Your sins into me, oh, my beautiful one now,

Your sins into me.
As a rapturous voice escapes,
I will tremble a prayer and I'll beg for forgiveness.
Your sins into, your sins into, your sins into,
Your sins into me, oh, my beautiful one.
