Oh, oh I've been thrown in a cell and forgot about
And I can't find my way out!
I guess I gotta fight through
Guess it's gonna come out just me and you.
I pray I can't get out alive
I'm from this battle with myself
It keeps trying to bring me down
I better get the running before I hit the ground
And this running's got me going nowhere, no, oh, oh, oh!

Chorus:

You give me what I need
They called me, chains off me
So take them, go get them
Set me free from all the mistakes!
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh!

I'm tired of fighting, there's a man inside
That you would give up my own desires
Never knew freedom what they found
When my life like women and my weapons down!
I should have give up a long time ago
I never should have taken this road to go
That I could go ahead and count it done
Cause the war I'm in is already won
Yeah, the war I'm in is already won!

Chorus:

You give me what I need
They called me, chains off me
So take them, go get them
Set me free from all the mistakes!

When I feel like I can dream, it seems like there's no goal
You was there to hold me up when I'm falling!
I know that you are ready to see my chaos all around
This can still be found!

Chorus:

You give me what I need
They called me, chains off me
So take them, go get them
Set me free from all the mistakes!

I've been thrown in a cell and forgot about!
