"Battle Cry"

With a smile that lights up the room
My heart is taken and it's not coming back soon
I've fallen hard hard for the free girl
My heart is taken and it's not coming back soon

Oh my desire
All I want is you
Oh my desire
All I want is you

The northern ling sings oh so sweet
She's in the middle of my every day dream
The Beauty! I just want to melt away
She's in the middle of my every day dream

Oh my desire
All I want is you
Oh my desire
All I want is you

Oh my desire
All I want is you
Oh my desire
All I want is you
