"Who's To Blame"

What makes a killer? now that's a bore what makes you scream? you're being ignored if your hand are bloody then so are mine we all want freedom when we're confined who's to blame?
who's to blame?
what's the fucking difference does it matter who's to blame?
scrutinized or trivialized the end result's the same the world is going down the fucking drain these things happen every day buildings burn, kids are blown away you think we're safe here (america) privileged from birth?
we're our own victims on planet earth down the fucking drain
