filthy, fucking landlords, apartments up for rent cheating, lying, swindling tenants of their every cent paying them for housing, you need somewhere to sleep they're concerned with nothing but their profit property money, lie and real estate are so easy to conceal who are they gonna answer to they're taking all we're worth just scumbags and parasites, they're renting out the earth living off your misery and they don't give a fuck you payed your rent your money's spent and now you're fucking stuck money, lies and real estate, or whatever they can steal people put their trust in others hoping for the best then they're getting ripped off by the people who infest this system and society and plague it with their lies conmen in disguise

don't care about conditions, there's a slum here for a price sign on the line right here because they know you have no choice filthy fucking landlords are just conmen in disguise conmen in disguise money, lies conmen in disguise
