

A Global Threat "Sucks To The Political"

If punk's not a religion then you don't have a savior's word

And it's not, so I never will subscribe to your thoughts
'Cause you've got nothing to say that I haven't heard

Gospel talk, the holy word
Save the world, my back is turned

And I don't see the point to life as some kind of martyr
'Cause you're always pushing your solutions on me
But there's always someone pushing harder [Incomprehensible]

Gospel talk, the holy word
Save the world, my back is turned

Watch out

Gospel talk, the holy word
Save the world, my back is turned

You're always right, to live is sin
In a perfect world, I guess we'd all repent
