Desire
From the very first rush
To the very last sigh
In a moment's touch
To the whole of time
Be the secrets of pain
Kiss the tears that you cry, oh girl

Just to hold without
Get to touch within
From the sound of your breath
To the taste of your skin
I'd give all my days
Just for one of your nights

I've just got to get next to you
Let it out, let it go
(Let it out)

Desire, make it physical
Looks to feed the thrill
Desire, with its hungry eyes
Closing for the kill

Desire, all that's left in me
Tears the night in two
Desire, like a primitive
Claw my way to you

Are you thinking of me
Like I'm thinking of you?

How the innocence dies
In a passionate stare
A shaft of light, a silent dare
The call of the wild

From the very first crime
Of original sin
To the carnal lie
Where the truth begins
Just to feel your nails

Lift me up like wings

I've just got to get next to you
(Next to you)
Let it out, let it go
(Let it out)

Desire, make it physical
Looks to feed the thrill
Desire, with its hungry eyes
Closing for the kill

Desire, all that's left in me
Tears the night in two
Desire, like a primitive
Claw my way to you

Are you thinking of me
Like I'm thinking of you?

Are you thinking of me
Like I'm thinking of you?

Are you thinking of me
Like I'm thinking of you?

Are you thinking of me
Like I'm thinking of

Desire, make it physical
Looks to feed the thrill
Desire, with its hungry eyes
Closing for the kill
Desire, it tears the night in two
(Desire)

Desire, make it physical
Looks to feed the thrill
Desire, with its hungry eyes
(Hungry eyes)
