You take me on 80,
Along a California trail,
To Reno,
I know you're waiting there.
I passed the Sierra Nevada,
Like a Holy Grail,
You beckon a beacon,
There you are.

Magnetic, seductive, attractive, like no other love.
Reno, silver and gold.

You break me, you take me,
Into the valley of the Sun.
I'm helpless, no power, in your spell.

Your beauty, temptation, they tell me that you are the one.
Reno, silver and gold.

So Reno, you will not completely ever set me free.
Reno, silver and gold.
