Your eyes are saucer wide
Staring at the sky
What you looking for?
Don't waste my time

How can you find your voice
When you let the cat get your tongue? Yeah
Don't you know when the night comes
I can glow the things I know?

Brighter than the moonlight
Can shine your light for two
All these feelings in my heart for you
Glow, yeah, yeah, ho

I landed somewhere in the future
Behind the door, I found I can love
I wasn't even looking for
I broke into a sweat, asking are you there yet? Oh, oh

Let's colonize this place
And fix the human race
Before it gets too late

Don't you know when the night comes
You can glow the things you know?

You bring light gifts into my home, yeah
Shine brighter than starlight
Oh, your light for two
Feeling in my heart for you

You will find me blindfold
I can glow, yeah, oh, oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
These things I know
I can glow

I know the power of darkness
Light is the night and knowledge is the key
To all we do and see

Peace and serenity

Are the flowers of our acceptance, yeah, yeah
These things I know
You can glow

These things you know
Shine brighter than the moonlight
Shine your light for two
All these feelings in my heart for you

Glow
Your gifts you bring into my heart
My heart, heart
These things I know

Mmm, yeah, hey, hey
