Envisioning my own death
Has recently led me to a broader apprehension of this terrible filthy world

I'm trying to live and breathe free
Thank god, thank God
I have displaced all my long held sentiments

I think I see what you mean
When things are too far gone
Its over and done with no words to change or actions to sway

I think I see what you mean
When things are too far gone
Its over and done with no words to change or actions to
sway

My heart has been twisted Tied in the machinery of Your heart is faithless
Depending on blind faith to save us
From the edge of what lies beneath your lies Bury your fucking face lies beneath your lies Faithless

Pull back
Pull back
Save Faith
Pull back

I think I see what you mean
When things are too far gone
Its over and done with no words to change or actions to
sway.

I think I see what you mean
When things are too far gone
Its over and done with no words to change or actions to sway.
