"Where The Heroes Die"

Visit "Where The Heroes Die" on MotoLyrics.com

Together we march towards the battle, with our powerful hearts!
Starlight, guide us! Show us the way!
Its cold light reflects our victory.
(Victory!)

Ten thousand men, to the glory they rode,
and they fell!
Where the heroes die...
Ten thousand dreams to oblivion;
remember them forever more.

Clouds are hiding the pale moonlight;
we smell the death close to us.
I promised, give my life
and fulfil the prophecy,
but the gods failed us;
the stars are coming down.
(Like arrows!)

GO!

Although we'll fight,
we know we'll die!
As heroes we'll fight until the end!

Ten thousand men, to the glory they rode,
and they fell!
Where the heroes die...
Ten thousand dreams to oblivion;
remember them forever more.
