[Music by Adam Cook]

["I have come to bring fire, and how I wish it were already kindled!..

Do you think I have come to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but division."

- Jesus Christ, Luke's Gospel, 12:49-51

This introduction theme from Luke's gospel was chosen because it cuts to the heart of all that we believe and work to achieve.

Man has great potential through God, but the potential goes both ways: man can inflict and heal, degrade and uplift.

Peace and war, love and swords.

"The mighty man will become tinder and his works a spark; both will burn together, with no one to quench the fire."

- Isaiah 1:31]
