Staring at pictures hang up on the wall
Captured in moments when you had it all
You used to be easy, you're never in doubt
Life for the party, so in with the crowd
But right now
When you see her with somebody else
Are you bitter?
Just to thought, that she's moving with nothing at all
Are you bitter? Are you bitter?
Turned out the poetry of the little girl lost
You took her and built up a great debutant
The life that you gave her
She's living without you
The doors that you opened
She's closing them all

And right now
When you see her with somebody else
Are you bitter?
Just to thought, that she's moving with nothing at all
Are you bitter? Are you bitter?
We were shot by the news
But we read every word, even the rumors
What are you gonna do?
As you falling from grace, it's such a long way
It's such a hard way
To loose
And right now
When you see her with somebody else
Are you bitter?
Just to thought, that she's moving with nothing at all
Are you bitter? Are you bitter?
