Rest your little wings tonight
You've had a long and weary flight
Lay your head upon my chest,
It's time to sleep, you've done your best.

Sandbox standing all alone untouched
I remember how it meant so much
I left your room the way it was,
For no reason, just because.

Celebrate the journey that you travel
Be courageous, I'll be waiting for a sign.

Precious little angel of mine
Run away as far and as fast as you can
You'll be safe until I get there
Now you cannot suffer anymore

Little feet will run no more
Memories will be hard to ignore
Close your tiny eyes and dream
Don't be frightened of the gleam

Celebrate the journey that you travel, mhm
Be courageous, I'll be waiting for a sign.

Precious little angel of mine
Run away as far and as fast as you can
You'll be safe until I get there
Now you cannot suffer anymore (x2)

Don't suffer anymore.

Rest your little wings, tonight.
