I am one in a billion
I am the only one that I can be
And that is something beautiful

I see the world like nobody else can see
I am the someone that nobody else can be
I'm the original, so irreplaceable
No matter who I'll be and who I've been
I am perfect just the way I am

I am one in a billion
I am the only one that I can be
And that is something beautiful
And I am a light that is shining
I'll sing the song that only I can sing
Yes that is something beautiful
(It's something beautiful, it's something wonderful)

I'm only human just like anyone
But I'm the only me under the sun
Just like a snowflake, no two are the same
And there's unity in our individuality
I am perfect just being me

I am one in a billion
I am the only one that I can be
And that is something beautiful
And I am a light that is shining
I'll sing the song that only I can sing
Yes that is something beautiful
(It's something beautiful, it's something wonderful)

Everybody is somebody that nobody else can be
Everybody is somebody that nobody else can be
Everybody is somebody and that's who I am
[x2]

I am one in a billion
I am the only one that I can be
And that is something beautiful

I am one in a billion
I am the only one that I can be
And that is something beautiful
And I am a light that is shining
I'll sing the song that only I can sing
Yes that is something beautiful
(It's something beautiful, it's something wonderful)

That is something beautiful
