I lived most half my life from everything I knew
Left to find my sanity maybe make a dream come true
And much to my surprise cuz I never would believe California I'm gonna leave

All these palm trees same weather every day
They say what's not to like but I just disagree
I guess the sameness of livin here's the norm
I miss Midwest thunderstorms

California dreamin was the motto in the day
Found lots of answers and I'm glad I came to stay
Ain't no regrets of why I had to come
California I gotta run

Green grassy meadows with a barn and a pond
Sittin on the front porch with friends and play some songs
This is what I'm dreamin of L.A. had my fill Leavin California can't wait until

All these palm trees same weather every day
They say what's not to like but I just disagree
I guess the sameness of livin here's the norm
I miss Midwest thunderstorms

California dreamin was the motto in the day
Found lots of answers and I'm glad I came to stay
Ain't no regrets of why I had to come
California I gotta run

California dreamin was the motto in the day
Found lots of answers and I'm glad I came to stay
Ain't no regrets of why I had to come
California I gotta run
(instrumental break)
California I gotta run
California I gotta run
California I gotta run
California I gotta run
