Hold your tongue
This is your penance for the things you've done and said
You best be on your best behavior
Now speak your peace
This is a wedding for the recently deceased

You are the church
And we are the dance floor children getting down
With fire on our feet

Baby we were built for this
We can live with the lies,
Its the truth that we'll miss
We'll seal it with a kiss on the lips
As we say "I do" in the church of sin

We live in a house of fools
And welcome the profound
The walls are laden with hearsay
So tonight we'll burn them down
People are going to talk
So we'll give them something to talk about

Baby we were built for this
We can live with the lies,
Its the truth that we'll miss
We'll seal it with a kiss on the lips
As we say "I do" in the church of sin
