But I know that you will never tell me
What your thinking, so that's why
I've gotta make my move this moment
Has been a rush I've been thinking
Whether or not to touch
What I've wanted for so long

This is my last call, sing
For what I knew
Now I'm going for it this time
Visit your hands and mine
Cause it stays to cold to be alone

So please tell me what's got me into me
Best time, I think it's both eyes
Yeah, both eyes
Just like a pick my sun
Now I'm staring back at me, staring back

This is my last call, sing
For what I knew
Now I'm going for it this time
Visit your hands and mine
Cause it stays to cold to be alone

Don't hold back with only seconds to go
Out here in the storm with only inches to go
I know the weather is cold
But when it's warmer the further that we go

I know the weather is cold
But it gets warmer the further that we go
I know the weather is cold
But it gets warmer the further that we go

Oooh, where, oooh, for
Where things will go

This is my last call, sing
For what I knew
And now I'm going for it this time
Visit your hands and mine

Cause it stays to cold to be alone
