I need someone to lift me up
And hold me on my feet
Raise me above the clouds
And watch me free fall down

Listing to these bones so brittle
At the cries of lies you tell
By the morning after
Of something beautiful

Pre chorus

When you wake you thought I would be there
To run my fingers through your hair
Now its my time to smile
Now its my time to shine

Chorus

I swear iv had it up to here
DonÂ't want to see another tear
Im gone im never coming back
Was it worth us
Was it worth our trust
Im gone im never coming back

You ripped my heart out
Now give it Back
Fuck this story
Fuck this life

I will hold my ground
Laugh at what I used to have
I will hold my hate
Never let you think you won
