I continue to succumb to mundane hospitality
Fabricating pertinent dinner conversation
Fascinating breath pressing draws
Asking myself why

Unbelievable, isn't it? The way we twist the words around
Just to get that quick fix, I swore someday I'd save myself

Unbelievable, isn't it?
Unbelievable, isn't it?

And I'll tease you, tickle your goddamn nod job
Focus on the lines forming faster
Aching in the waste of primitive lust
Asking myself why

Just to get that quick fix, I swore someday I'd save
myself

Unbelievable, isn't it?
Unbelievable, isn't it?

From cum dreamt lines forcing faster and faster

Just to get that quick fix, I swore someday I'd save
myself

Unbelievable, isn't it?
Unbelievable, isn't it?

At last, can I please rest?
Unbelievable, isn't it?
Vacate every day after day
Unbelievable, isn't it?
