You told me out of the blue
You broke me into two million pieces
I couldn't believe it
But now I'm feeling a little relived
And now I'm feeling a little relived

It's over never been better
Since you left me I'm finally flying
Free from the burden you placed on me
It's over never been better
Since you left me I'm finally flying
Free from the burden of everything

I thought I'd never get better
I thought we'd stay together forever
I guess I was wrong
I never expected a feeling like this
I never expected a feeling like this

It's over never been better
Since you left me I'm finally flying
Free from the burden you placed on me
It's over never been better
Since you left me I'm finally flying
Free from the burden of everything

There's no where I'd rather be
Away from you and your misery
There's no where I'd rather be
Away from you and your misery, your misery

It's over never been better
Since you left me I'm finally flying
Free from the burden you placed on me

It's over never been better
Since you left me I'm finally flying
Free from the burden you placed on me
It's over never been better
Since you left me I'm finally flying
Free from the burden of everything
