It's in your heart, not in your eyes
It's not real just stubborn lies, if it's only on the outside
Cause there's more behind her smile
When she's right here right beside me
She's in my heart and that's all that I need

We're gonna turn this world upside down
It's better to love than never love at all
We'll get the whole world singing
To the rhythm of your heart beating
And don't care what the others say
It's not up to them anyway
We'll get the whole world singing
To the rhythm of your heart beating

Don't let go, no don't give in Don't let them tell you how to live
When you know what's best for your life darling
When he's right here right beside me
He's in my heart and that's all that I need

We're gonna turn this world upside down
It's better to love than never love at all
We'll get the whole world singing

To the rhythm of your heart beating
And don't care what the others say
It's not up to them anyway
Yeah, we'll get the whole world singing
To the rhythm of your heart beating

My little lover how you dance so fine; just sway your hips a little more in time
My little lover how you dance so fine; just shake it in time

We're going to turn this world upside down
It's better to love than never love at all
We'll get the whole world singing
To the rhythm of your heart beating
We're going to turn this world upside down
It's better to love than never love at all

We'll get the whole world singing
To the rhythm of your heart beating
And don't care what the others say
It's not up to them anyway
Yeah, we'll get the whole world singing
To the rhythm of your heart beating
