What the Atlantic shores have blessed us with,
(I can hear your heart! )
A place like no other warm hearts turn to stone
(Screaming I need you! )
I can hear your heart!, it's screaming out!, I need you!
I can hear your heart!

And the sun is forbidden.
I left myself alone,
(Can you hear my heart?)
To see what I've created?
See what I've become.
(It responds with always)

Can you hear my heart!
Your smile is sweeter than any april showers!
Let may shower down on me.
(I must have missed what the rest have seen.)
Shower down!
Let may shower down on me!

Not chapped lips or sunburned cheeks will ever stop
me from kissing you
This is Heaven!
This is Heaven!
