You can always recognize it
Like you recognize the faith
Once you've got it you won't lose it
And it doesn't run away

You can push it from your mind
Never give it any time
Say it isn't what I need
But it's like holding back the sea

Love comes in and fills up everywhere
Love comes in and fills up everywhere

It's a mystic transformation
From the darkness to the light
It's as sudden as the morning
Gotta keep an end in sight

Where there's sadness in the moon
There will be hope and light again, and soon

Love comes in and fills up everywhere
Love comes in and fills up everywhere
It fills up everywhere

You can push it from your mind
Never give it any time
Say it isn't what I need
But it's like holding back the sea

Love comes in and fills up everywhere
Love comes in and fills up everywhere
And it fills up, and it fills up everywhere
Love comes in and fills up everywhere
Love comes in and fills up everywhere
