Focus on me there is more to see
But use discretion this ride isn't free
I'll prove them wrong
I'll prove them more wrong
The more I sit here the more that I think

Every mistake I make from now on I'll turn around
I'll make it, I'll make it right
And every truth I fake
I might hurt someone
I'll make it, I'll make it more right

Pins and needles are up and down my spine
I'll pull them out one by one
I don't need it all
Give it all away
The more that I breathe it
The more it seeps through
It's a numbing feeling
This is what I'll do

Every mistake I make from now on I'll turn around
I'll make it, I'll make it right
And every truth I fake I might hurt someone
I'll make it I'll make it all right

Every mistake I make from now on I'll turn around
I'll make it I'll make it right
And every truth I fake
I might hurt someone
I'll make it
I'll make it all right

I'll make it all right
