you must not have a heart
have nothing in your chest to let it go for so long and let this go so far that it goes over your head you could fool anyone with your plastic smile and you could live in your lie for only a while and i could only take so much and i admit this could be worse but it goes over your head

what does she have
can you let go
can you tell me
what i am aching to know you could ruin any mood just by saying what's on your mind you could only take tame body never tame this mind and i can only take so much

can you tell me

if i'm reaching in you're not letting it show cause i'm respect and there's no room to grow sea deep, can't breath and you can't find the air it's right in front of you
