[Verse 1 - Chocolate Ty]

Somebody open this door
I'm trying to get in this game
I go by the name Choc belong in the hall of fame
In the type of game I'm in I belong next to Wilt Chamberlin
I'm not at all a baller but I do know all the rules I refuse to let you be the reason that I lose and I ain't never been afraid of another MC that's just as dope as me you must be outta your mind if you think you come close to me
I could rhyme, I could write, I could rap, I could sing nigga I can do it all got guns got knives got bats ain't a thing to go to war you could get your baddest biggest niggaz that you running with I'm equipped with 16 hollow tips to fill up in this clip I got a whole lot of niggaz that'll ride you don't want to collide

[Hook]

Knock knock who is it, knock knock who is it

[Verse 2 - Drag-On]

Y'all going to make a nigga kick down your door snatch your bricks, smack your bitch, sawed off

Hit the floor anybody move I'm poppin off when it comes to these streets we done it all

Damn niggaz say they don't like this verse that's a quick way to catch a ride in a hearse skip the hospital skip the nurse get the casket get the dirt dump the body with the shottie when it comes to this shit
I spit the best fuck the rest I spit the slang and I got shit that'll split ya vest I call the shots you call the cops y'all niggaz never gave me all my props I don't give a fuck if I ball or not I'll get a motherfuckin baller popped Before a nigga let the mag pop get off Drag's cock Since I came back niggaz mad huh Double R got a nigga back huh nigga

[Verse 3 - Chocolate Ty]

May god be my witness by the time I'm finished my business I'ma put my foot through the door knock this bitch off the hinges soon as I step on the floor I'm surrounded by women shoulda let me in in the beginning too many beginners pretending
I can't believe how the industry keeps signing niggaz that ain't got no type of flow They drop a little mixtape cop a little v8 now think they got some dough
I wanna know what your problem is I'm gettin tired of executives

Black eye is the entertainment everything we drop you
