[Lil fizz]

uh uhh yo yo remix fizzo up in this yo dat boi rell up in this

We gon'T yall round sing it to em girl

[VERSE 1:]

Day to day and each night I pray that this ends

That there's someone out there that's gonna melt my heart away

And take me to another place

>From the loneliness that's driving me insane

[Part 2]

I get so cold summer feels like the winter

When I'm at home, all alone I just cry

I wish that I could just lie like I'm happy

But I can't hide this hurt inside

[CHORUS:]

But I'll tell you someday I'm gonna find

A guy that's gonna change my life

And I tell you one day just wait and see

True love is waiting out there for me

[VERSE 2:Jarell]

(Uh oh no they ain'Tt for me)

She was so fly, She was alright

She looked like she came down from that paradise

She was so thrown, She was so cold

Cuz she already knew she had it goin'T on

Them pretty A toes (uh huh), The way she rolls

Everything about her looked so dope

Her independent ways, bills all paid

What else could you ask for now a days (Yeah)

[VERSE 2:]

I'm like an open book just trying to turn the page

Feels like I'm trapped in a maze trying to find my way

Oh my heart's yearning for someone to call my own

And I don't wanna sing another sad love song again

I get so cold summer feels like the winter
And not a full moon of gloom that just cried?
I wish that I could just lie like I'm happy
But I can't hide this hurt inside

[CHORUS 2x]

[VERSE 3:Lil fizz]

So baby can i get your number
So we can holla...
I'd really like to share some time wit you and anything or everything you wanna do is cool
Keep it just between us two for you and someday or one day Ill be in love with you
Your style is very cool and you know I love that boo
So let me take you down south and show you what I do

[CHORUSx2]

Someday, Someday
