I'll be here with you forever
When times gets hard, we'll be together
The faith of noone, they say I'm crazy
But I don't hear the words there saying

Just the thought of you
Gets me through these days
Just the thought of you
Together we'll move on
Just the thought of you

I count these days that I've been without you
I count these days in bed without you
I wonder where I'll be tomorrow, cause life without you is so hard to swallow
The days and nights all blend together, now

Just the thought of you
Gets me through these days
Just the thought of you
Together we'll move on
Just the thought of you

Tell me if I get over my head
Tell me if I get over my head

Just the thought of you
Gets me through these days
Just the thought of you
Together we'll move on
Just the thought of you

Just the thought of you
Gets me through these days
Just the thought of you
Together we'll move on
Just the thought of you
