So, where is your god?
Where is your sun
Should light the way
Was walked with the pain

Where is your own
Angel was born
To keep you alive
To bring you the light?

Where have you lost
All of your hopes?
Where have you
Abandoned your faith?

Caged inside
The myst of a night
There's your life
Dying alone

Welcome to his world
The land os sulphur and salt
The kingdom of a heartache and raped souls

Don't try to kill
Or to defeat this plague
Has been penetrated into your name

Through the fear, through this desease
He crawls on his broken knees
He crawls through your wildest dreams
Bringing death and agony...

... as time erases the glory
He shows no mercy, no sorry
He is the creature of all of your goals -
The darkes side of your raped soul
