I've been looking out my window
Watch the snow fall on the ground
The red and green from Christmas lights hanging around town
And I wish that you could see what I'm seeing too

I've been counting down the days
Trying not to get excited
Haven't heard much of the party
So I'm probably not invited
But you won't be there
So why would I wanna go?

I've been good this year
The only thing I want is you to be here
All my gifts can wait
I don't believe in Santa Claus
But I believe in us this holiday

So I haven't got your letter,
I sure hope you got my card
Though the mailman keeps saying
"Boy, you're thinking way too hard"
But he don't know what I'm feeling now
Without you around

I've been good this year
The only thing I want is you to be here
All my gifts can wait
I don't believe in Santa Claus
But I believe in us this holiday

I thought that I was dreaming
When I saw you at my door
You kissed me on the lips like you have never done before
I looked up for the mistletoe and didn't see a thing
I got just what I wanted
So what more could Santa bring?

I've been good this year

The only thing I want is you to be here
All my gifts can wait
I don't believe in Santa Claus
But I believe in us this holiday

I've been good this year
The only thing I want is you to be here
All my gifts can wait
I don't believe in Santa Claus
But I believe in us this holiday

This holiday
Oh, I believe in us this holiday
