I've watched these stars
I've watched the sky
I've watched your world
Fall in your eyes

I'll hold you close
I'll kiss your neck
I'll make you weak
With this Dialect I speak

We're taking everything for granted
Replacing everything with heavy hearts
Now I'm losing my mind
And losing everything I had

Stay awake
I found the answers
To everything you've ever asked
I'm cleaning up mistakes I've made
Replacing them with ones I've not made yet

We wont let this fall apart.
I'm not leaving this alone
I thought forever meant forever
Not tomorrow or today

Close your eyes we'll fly away
And we'll come back home someday
Close your eyes we'll fly away
And we'll come back home someday

Stay awake
I found the answers
To everything you've ever asked
I'm cleaning up mistakes I've made
Replacing them with ones I've not made yet

(stay awake
I found the answers
To everything you've ever asked
I'm cleaning up mistakes I've made

Replacing them with ones I've not made yet)

Stay awake

I found the answers

To everything you've ever asked

I'm cleaning up mistakes I've made

Replacing them with ones I've not made yet
