[Chorus: will.i.am] + (Sample from Martin Luther King's "I Have A Dream" speech) (I have a dream) I got a dream (That one day) We're gonna work it out (That one day) We're gonna work it out (That one day) We're gonna work it out (Repeat 2x) (I have a dream) I got a dream (That one day) That one day (That one day) I'ma look deep within myself, I gotta find a better way (I have a dream) [Bridge: will.i.am] My dream is to be free My dream is to be... My dream is to be... My dream is to be free [Common] The search of brighter days, I might be amazed of the madness Strugglers my address, where pain and crack lives Gunshots coming from sounds of blackness Given this game with no time to practice Born on the black list, told I'm below average A life with no carriage That's no money if you're from where I'm from Funny, I just want some of your son Dark clouds seem to follow me Alcohol that my pops swallowed bothered me, no apologies I walk with a boulder on my shoulder It's a cold war, I'm a colder soldier Hold the same fight that made Martin Luther the King I ain't using it for the right thing In between leaning the fiends, hustling schemes I put together pieces of a dream, I still have one [Chorus] [Bridge] [Common] The world see me looking in the mirror Images of me getting much clearer Dear self, I wrote a letter just to better my soul If I don't express, then forever I hold Inside, I'm from the side where we out of control Rap music in the hood play the fatherly role My stories like yours, yo it gotta be told Try to make it from a gangsta to a Dalia robe Where it scrolls and and stow slaves, and Jewish people in cold cage Hate has no color or age Flip the page, now my race became freedom Write dreams in the dark, they far but I can see 'em I believe in heaven more than hell, lessons more than jail In the ghetto, let love prevail with a story to tell My eyes see the glory, and well The world waiting for me to yell "I Have A Dream" [Chorus] [Bridge]
